AUCTION SALES TO-MORROW. BY J. F. MORGAN.

King street, a large quantity of household furniture, pots of ferns,

ERUPTION ON MAUNA LOA.

By the steamer W. G. Hall which arrived yesterday, Mr. T. G. Thrum received the following letter dated Houuspo, Kau, Hawaii, December

The news of Kau is the strong winds without rain. On the afternoon of the 8th inst. evidences of volcanic activity was seen near the summit of Mauna Loa at Pohaku Hanalei. The line of the flow is seen from here, but cannot tell whether it is running towards Hilo, Kona or Kau.

Pohaku Hanalei is where the flow of 1887 first broke out, and Rev. E. P. Baker noticed the place when he went up there. The Kinau which is due on Saturday morning will probably bring later news.

PAHALA NOTES.

Heavy trade, winds have been blowing for a week and Pahala is in a cloud of dust, if not exactly praying for rain we are very anxiously hoping for it. We have had none since Nov. 2d.

Mr. Fuller is having work done on a new spring, which he expects will add considerably to the volume of water in one of the flumes.

Alexander Lindsay, assistant school teacher at Pahala, was fined $20 and costs of court at Punaluu on 3rd inst., for brutally whipping a little six-year old native girl at the school on Nov. 26th. The punishment inflicted on the child was most severe and brutal. The attention of the Board of Education has been called to the matter.

Pahala, Kau, Dec. 7th.

An amusing incident occurred last evening at the corner of Beretania and Emma streets. One of the cars had got off the track and the driver was fumbling all around in the mud and water to find the rails.

New Free Tontine Policy

Equitable Life Assurance Society

A SIMPLE PROMISE TO PAY.

[From the New York TIMES, June 22, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has adopted a new form of policy which, like a bank draft, is a simple promise to pay without condi-

[From the CHICAGO INVESTIGATOR. |

Always on the alert, and ever anxious to give the public the most advantageous contract in life insurance, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York has, in the past, made many advances on old methods and has been the means to liberalize life assurance in a greater degree perhaps, than any other organization. It is not at all surprising, therefore, that this great company now comes before the people with a new contract, the like of which has not before been known in life insurance.

[From the Kentucky Register, Richmond, Ky., June 28, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has, in the past, done more to create and maintain confidence in life assurance than any other company. Consequently its business is larger than that of any of its competitors. Furthermore, it has now taken a step which practically sweeps every objection of the character referred to out of the way. The result, undoubtedly, will be that thousands of men who have heretofore lacked confidence in life assurance, will examine the new policy offered by the Equitable, and assure their lives forthwith.

[From the Boston Post.] This company has done more than any other to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance.

[From the Pacific Underwriter, San Francisco, July 1, 1889.]

The Equitable has already established a world-wide reputation for liberal dealings with its policy-holders and for its prompt settlement of all legitimate claims against it, and this new policy cannot fail to enhance its reputation for enterprise and progressiveness in dealing with the subject of life assurance. For full particulars call on
